

Stephen G. Handy

MARKETING COMMUNICATIONS

Public Relations in the Public Interest

1355 East 625 North
Layton, Utah 84040
Tel: 801-699-2737
Fax: 801-529-1287
sgandy@comcast.net

Bio

Stephen G. “Steve” Handy

Steve Handy is a resident of Layton. He and his wife, Holly, a retired Davis County School District administrator, have six children and 17 grandchildren.

Professionally, Steve’s career has been in marketing communications, event management, advertising, and public relations. He was the marketing director for both the Standard-Examiner and the Deseret News.

He owns a public relations and marketing communications consulting business representing a number of clients including several involved in the expansion of new energy such as solar, wind, nuclear, and hydrogen. He has written a number of books for his clients including 2015’s: Lagoon, America’s Largest Family-Owned Amusement Park.

A graduate of the University of Utah, Steve has a bachelor’s degree in English and a master’s in Human Resources Management. He was an adjunct professor at the U. teaching marketing communications and served on the David Eccles School of Business Alumni Board as well as the U’s Alumni Board.

He served two terms on the Layton City Council and 12 years (2010-2022) in the Utah House of Representatives from District 16 representing Layton, Clearfield, West Weber, and Hill Air Force Base.

In the Legislature, he chaired a number of committees including, Public Utilities, Energy and Technology; Ethics; Political Subdivisions; and Economic Development and Workforce Services.

Steve has served on a number of community boards. Currently, he is a trustee of Intermountain Health’s McKay-Dee and Layton Intermountain Hospitals, a trustee of the Ogden Pioneer Days Foundation and a board member of the Friends of Antelope Island. He was appointed by Governor Spencer J. Cox to the Utah Commission on the 250th Anniversary of the United States. He is a past president of the Davis Arts Council and has been active in Scouts.

Steve looks forward to serving as a Commissioner for the Department of Alcoholic Beverage Services.